Winter Adult Bible Class

The winter adult Bible class began on December 4th. The class is "From The Beginning: A Reading Survey Of The Old Testament." Each week, we'll take a look at one or two books, and will read some key scriptures that help us understand the main ideas and how these books may help us when we study them. Each book of the Old Testaments tells us about who our God is, and also helps us see how, from the beginning, he has always desired to send Jesus and to give everyone the chance to know him.

Clothing Closet Donations

A New Land ...

A New Land Where Living Grain Abounds

May grain abound throughout the land; on the tops of the hills may it sway. May the crops flourish like Lebanon and thrive like the grass of the field. - Psalm 72:16

Turning the page of a calendar cannot make things new, yet Jesus has come to bring us into a new land where the grain of heaven abounds, his new pasture where we may eat the living bread of Jesus that renews us inwardly.

Human plans and earthly knowledge cannot bring relief from this world's spiritual famines, yet our God has brought us into a good land where he provides a flourishing crop of truth for those who open our hearts to him, a place where he gives us a harvest of grace in every season.

Praise be to the Lord God, the God of Israel, who alone does marvelous deeds. Praise be to his glorious name forever; may the whole earth be filled with his glory. Amen and Amen. - Psalm 72:18-19

Our God does wondrous deeds of grace and compassion to reassure us of his care for us; and he is our Rock of understanding, who gives us refuge from the loudness and chaos,

In you, Lord, I have taken refuge; let me never be put to shame. In your righteousness, rescue me and deliver me; turn your ear to me and save me. Be my rock of refuge, to which I can always go. - Psalm 71:1-3

We can always go to God's heavenly dwelling to find refuge, for he is our fortress of truth who reassures us with his words of what is real and imperishable and true.

My mouth will tell of your righteous deeds, of your saving acts all day long—though I know not how to relate them all. I will come and proclaim your mighty acts, Sovereign Lord; I will proclaim your righteous deeds, yours alone. - Psalm 71:15-16

Our Heavenly Father's righteousness is like the highest mountains, and in his faithfulness he watches over us all day long. It is good to proclaim that he is our Savior, our nourishing Vine; he is our life.

All Will Be Well Under Thy Shadow

Only Thy presence, O Savior divine,
Only Thy Spirit to witness with mine;
Only Thine image of love on my breast,
Seal of forgiveness, assurance of rest.

What tho' the billows like mountains may swell;
All will be well; yes, all will be well;
Under Thy shadow in peace I shall dwell;
All, all will be well.

Only Thy presence to lead me aright,
Out of the darkness and into the light;
Only a whisper to tell Thou art near,
Only Thy sunshine to banish my fear.

What tho' the billows like mountains may swell;
All will be well; yes, all will be well;
Under Thy shadow in peace I shall dwell;
All, all will be well.

Only Thy presence when trials I bear,
Lifting so gently my burden of care;
Only Thy presence to show me the way,
Home to the mansions of infinite day.

What tho' the billows like mountains may swell;
All will be well; yes, all will be well;
Under Thy shadow in peace I shall dwell;
All, all will be well.

Only Thy presence when wild is the gale,
Only Thy presence when rent is my sail;
Only Thy presence my vessel to guide
Into the harbor and over the tide.

What tho' the billows like mountains may swell;
All will be well; yes, all will be well;
Under Thy shadow in peace I shall dwell;
All, all will be well.
