Clothing Closet News

We would like to collect prom dresses and accessories for the Clothing Closet. Please spread the word and help us collect so we can distribute them at no charge to needy high school students in April.

The Clothing Closet will be closed on the 1st Wednesday of each month. We will use this time to organize, hang and pray for the guests we serve. If you would like to help out on those Wednesdays or any other Wednesday come by at 7 p.m. or reach out to Vicki Cowans or Pam Culler.

The Clothing Closet is currently in need of household items and shoes. You are welcome to bring donations on Wednesday evenings. If you have questions regarding what donations are accepted please contact Robbie McVicker at 614-899-0944.

The Enduring Peace...

The Enduring Peace Of Walking With God

You will keep in perfect peace those whose minds are steadfast, because they trust in you. - Isaiah 26:2-3

There is no peace in this world, yet walking with God can bring peace to our fearful spirits with his words. This world is full of anger and bitterness, yet being with God can calm the storms in our hearts. Peace in this world is always fragile, a brief pause when human nature is temporarily too exhausted to continue arguing and fighting. Yet when we open our hearts to him, God can give us the enduring peace of knowing that he is near, and that he will carry our burdens with us.

The Lord himself is our Rock eternal of truth and mercy and unfailing love and peace

Trust in the Lord forever, for the Lord, the Lord himself, is the Rock eternal. He humbles those who dwell on high, he lays the lofty city low. - Isaiah 26:4-5

God gives us a peace that does not depend on our strength nor on earthly circumstances; rather he gives us the deeper peace that comes from knowing that he has accepted us and will be with us wherever his path takes us. So our God gently calls us to leave the lofty 'cities' we try to build with our will power, to abandon the fortified cities we attempt to create with human talent, and let him take us to a better city, his heavenly dwelling where we may find rest for our souls.

So instead of putting our trust in our knowledge and our plans, our Upright One offers us the perfect peace of trusting in God's own true righteousness and his boundless truths -

The path of the righteous is level; you, the Upright One, make the way of the righteous smooth. Yes, Lord, walking in the way of your laws, we wait for you; your name and renown are the desire of our hearts. - Isaiah 26:7-8

We cannot make the path to God smooth, so in his compassion our Heavenly Father sent Jesus to build up the path with his grace, and to remove the obstacles to him that we couldn't have overcome. We couldn't even find the path of truth, so he shines his light on it one step at a time.

My soul yearns for you in the night; in the morning my spirit longs for you. When your judgments come upon the earth, the people of the world learn righteousness. - Isaiah 26:9

He calls us to walk with him, to learn from him what is real and what is right and what is good for our spirits. As we sleep, our hearts sing his new song of grace, and when we awake, our spirits long to be with our God all day long.

Graduation Sunday is June 4th this year. If you are graduating from High School, Collage, or a Trade School please see Bob. High School graduates will need 15 to 20 pictures of themselves from birth to current age. They also need a written description of where they graduated from and what they plan to do next. Collage and or Trade school. We need 3 current pictures and a description of where you graduated from.

Summer Camp is not too far away. It is not too early to start making plans.
We also need female councilors for our camp week.

The Unfailing One

He faileth not.—Zephaniah 3:5.

He who hath led will lead
All through the wilderness;
He who hath fed will feed;
He who hath blessed will bless;
He who hath heard thy cry,
Will never close His ear;
He who hath marked thy faintest sigh,
Will not forget thy tear.
He loveth always, faileth never;
So rest on Him, to-day, for ever !

He who hath made thee whole
Will heal thee day by day;
He who hath spoken to thy soul
Hath many things to say.
He who hath gently taught
Yet more will make thee know;
He who so wondrously hath wrought
Yet greater things will show.
He loveth always, faileth never;
So rest on Him, to-day, for ever !

He who hath made thee nigh
Will draw thee nearer still;
He who hath given the first supply
Will satisfy and fill.
He who hath given thee grace
Yet more and more will send;
He who hath set thee in the race
nWill speed thee to the end.
He loveth always, faileth never;
So rest on Him, to-day, for ever !

Then trust Him for to-day
As thine unfailing Friend,
And let Him lead thee all the way,
Who loveth to the end.
And let the morrow rest
In His belovèd hand;
His good is better than our best,
As we shall understand,—
If, trusting Him who faileth never,
We rest on Him, today, for ever !

- Frances Ridley Havergal (abridged), 1836-1879
